

THINKING ABOUT STUDYING MUSIC IN COLLEGE?

COLLEGE MUSIC 101

Presented by the University of New Mexico Music Faculty and the Albuquerque Youth Symphony Program

Tuesday, September 17

6 - 7 pm

- Do I want to major in music in college?
- If so, what are my options?
- What different degrees are available in music?
- What types of careers are available to musicians?
- What are college music ensembles like?
- Must I major in music to play in a college music ensemble?
- What is a college music audition like?
- What music should I play at an audition?
- When do I need to start thinking about music auditions for college?

If you want answers to any or all of these questions, come listen to the UNM Music Department discuss what being a college musician is all about!

What: College Music 101

When: Tuesday, September 17, 6:00-7:00 PM

Where: AYSP Facility, Robertson Rehearsal Hall

Address: 4407 Menaul Blvd NE, 87110

Who: Students and Parents - Open to the public!

All are welcome, so invite your friends! Useful information for students in grades 9-12, but also great for middle school students already considering majoring in music in college.

Find out what making music in college is all about in this FREE hour-long, college music seminar. Reservations NOT required! Not just for AYSP students - ALL are welcome!!

QUESTIONS? Call (505) 875-1319 or email norlynn@aysmusic.org